Captain's Report

Covid restrictions saw our Hume Vet's competition deferred to the 3rd Monday in June with a timesheet-start format. The early players toughed out a cold tee off but the temperature soon increased with some pleasant sunny weather.

There were a few holdups in traffic on the roads, delaying some of the players, which in turn disrupted the starting order, however 75 members arrived to make up the field. Although there were a few wet areas on the fairways the course was in good shape.

Thanks to John for preparing and dealing out the cards and Peter for collecting fees.

Also, thanks to Kerry for taking over the field preparation from Mario and coming in to co-ordinate the results and amendments required to some scores (a couple of blokes who shall remain nameless, were directing the disrupted start to the morning and were able to confuse the blue and white tee with the lack of red markers. My apologies).

Now for the winners:

Name	Handicap	Score
A grade winner:
John O'Neill	10	39 points
A grade runner-up:
Wes Jankiewicz	8	37 points c/b
B grade winner:
Tony Barr	16	37 points
B grade runner-up:
Dick Heaney	16	36 points c/b
C grade winner:
Peter Denny	20	37 points
C grade runner-up:
Fort Rizzo	21	36 points c/b
D grade winner:
Leslie Coelho	26	44 points
D grade runner-up:
Tony Hedley	23	37 points

Nearest the pin winners:

6th hole	John Middleton
9th hole	Pamela Murphy
12th hole	Mike McGonegal
15th hole	Brian Smith

The ball comp. went down to 33 points and they can be collected at our next outing, along with the grade prize winners.

The "raffallo" prize was won by Bob Penrose, with golf balls to Dick Heaney, Brian Smith and Warren Streets.

Winner of the Birthday draw was Neil Fowler, a free golf game at Goonawarra (course condition permitting) on Thu 8th July 21.

From the President Alan Kinnaird

Hello members, having just returned home after playing at Mt Derrimut, I must apologise for the confusion regarding my instruction to the majority of players to play off the white tees. This was incorrect as the handicaps were based on playing from the blue tees. Kerry Bayly has addressed this and sent out an email to the members explaining how this was resolved in determining the results for the day. We have also discussed this at our committee meeting to ensure that there will be no repeat with future events.

I have the pleasure to advise you that Peter Turner by invitation has joined the committee. Peter is highly regarded by his fellow golfers partners and will be an acquisition to the management of our Club.

SLOW PLAY - this matter has again been raised by a number of members and we would ask that in future, the lowest handicapped player act as the "Captain" of the group to keep an eye on their progress to make sure that his team are moving at the required pace. If the group are experiencing difficulty in keeping up with group in front and are under pressure from behind then allow them through. We all want to enjoy our game and by adopting a common-sense approach this can be achieved to everyone's satisfaction. Captain Gus will remind everyone again when we play next month.

In the meantime stay healthy, play well and I look forward to seeing you at Goonawarra.

Alan Kinnaird

Mario has a supply of the brand-new Optima XSF golf balls for the same price as previous- 2 dozen balls for $30 half retail price. Normal retail $28.99 doz.

Coronation complete!

Jon Rahm crowned US Open champ in three-week, $2.2m redemption story

Jack Austin

Jon Rahm has earned the sweetest form of redemption at the US Open, claiming his maiden major just weeks after being forced to pull out of the Memorial Tournament with a six-hole lead going into the final round due to a positive COVID test.

The Spaniard surged into contention during the final session with a stunning -4 round as all those around him imploded in train wreck scenes at Torrey Pines.

It meant it was a fitting end to a chaotic final round as Rahm's roller-coaster three weeks ended on a high, after being robbed of $2.2m he was due to receive for winning the Memorial Tournament.

The Spaniard was forced into isolation until last weekend after being told to immediately quarantine despite holding a six-hole lead with one round of the tournament to go in a cruel blow to his season.

He was left needing to make a mad dash to San Diego to make the US Open in time to get some practice rounds in before the tournament began.

It was even more fitting that Rahm's first major came at Torrey Pines, the location of his first PGA Tour title back in 2017 at the Farmers Insurance Open.

Words of Wisdom

"Play it as it lies" is one of the fundamental dictates of golf.
The other is "Wear it if it clashes."

Henry Beard

Give me golf clubs, fresh air, and a beautiful partner, and you can keep the clubs and the fresh air.

Jack Benny

The more you play it the less you know about it.

Patty Berg

Golf is played by twenty million, mature American men whose wives think they are out having fun.

Jim Bishop

Golf isn't like other sports where you can take a player out if he's having a bad day. You have to play the whole game.

Phil Blackmar

Have you ever noticed what golf spells backwards?

Al Boliska

Never break your putter and your driver in the same round or you're dead.

Tommy Bolt

I may be the only golfer never to have broken a single putter if you don't count the one I twisted into a loop and threw into a bush.

Thomas Boswell

I don't like to watch golf on television because I can't stand people who whisper.

David Brenner

The trouble that most of us find with the modern matched sets of clubs is that they don't really seem to know any more about the game than the old ones did.

PGA Tour Pro Mark Hensby gets 10 shot penalty at Palmetto Championship.

Mark Hensby received an incredible 10-shot penalty on day one of the Palmetto Championship after falling foul of the PGA Tour's 'One Ball' Rule.

Hensby, who was teeing up this week in just his second PGA Tour event in three and half years, found the penalty area on the 4th hole and then took his drop en route to making a bogey.

Four holes later, however, the 49-year-old Australian realised there was a dot on his golf ball that he had never seen before.

After speaking with his caddy and playing partners, Hensby discovered the ball was a low-spin Pro V1 and not the model of the golf ball he started with.

Under the PGA Tour's Local Rule G-4 One Ball Rule, which means a player must use the same make and model of golf ball during a round of golf, Hensby received a two-shot penalty for each hole that he played the ball on.

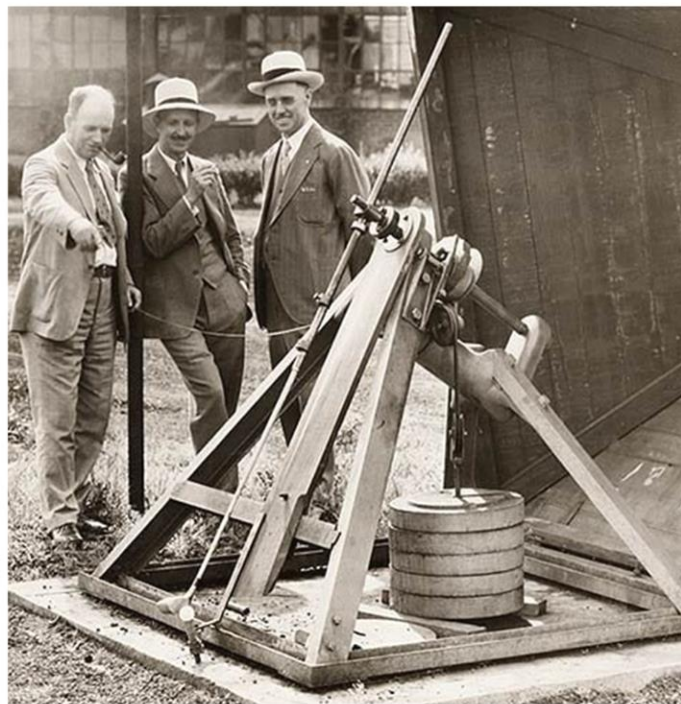

As Hensby had played five holes with the rogue ball, he received a 10-shot penalty.

The mistake was later cleared up as Hensby realised he had picked up one of playing partner Pat Perez's golf balls on the practice putting green.

Hensby went on to card a round of 13-over 84, and he would go on to withdraw from the tournament on the Friday.

Solid foundations

Before you take a swing at the ball you have to set yourself up correctly. Put your hands on the club correctly, align yourself to the target, be the right distance from the ball, build a balanced stance and perfect posture. If you spend more time working on your setup you will be more than halfway to hitting a great shot.

Chipping With Touch

By Alex Fisher Photos by J.D. Cuban

Golfers who struggle with chipping make the setup too complicated. They've been told to take an open stance, set their weight forward, play the ball back, and lean the shaft toward the target. That's a lot of information to apply without making a mistake.

As I'm showing in the left photo here, playing the ball back often causes you to lean away from the target. This shifts your weight back, even though you feel as if it's on your front foot. Now the shaft leans forward excessively. The leading edge is going to stick in the ground and produce a low shot that runs too hard.

Instead, set up square with a middle ball position. Now you can feel relaxed with good posture. To confirm that your weight is forward, raise your back heel off the turf. Set the toe of your back shoe in line with the heel of your front shoe (above, right). Your spine should be vertical, even a touch toward the target.

Practice from this heel-up position. You'll be surprised how pure you strike it.

Victorian Veteran Golfers Association Annual Teams Championship

For several years now the Hume Veterans Golf Club has entered 2 teams into this prestigious event and this year we will do so again.

Each team consists of 3 players and our teams are selected on the basis of Order of Merit (OOM) positions after our August event. The leading six OOM players will be invited to participate, and the committee will work down the list until six invitations are accepted.

The club will cover the entry fee for each team ($210 per team) and each player will be given $100 towards accommodation and expenses.

This year's event is to be held at Yallourn Golf Club over two days 13 and 14 September.

Based upon current standing in the OOM the invitees would be, Peter Turner, Tony Hedley, Trevor Corrie, Guy Orrico, Tony Barr and Alan Condron. However, a lot can change over the next two rounds. To see where you currently stand in the OOM, you can access current standings from either the One Golf home page or the Hume Vets website under Golf/Order of Merit.
