4 Ball Better Ball

For our last game of the year, to go with our big Christmas Lunch, we will be playing 4BBB.

Your Team

Players are in teams of 2 (your partner will be the player you are drawn next to on the start sheet).

One team member will be designated "Player A" and one "Player B" on the score card.

Each team member will play off their designated, individual, playing handicap for the day. There is no team handicap as in ambrose.

The Game (how played)

In 4BBB Stableford two players play as partners although the hole is played by each of them, using their individual full handicaps.

The best of the two stableford scores is then recorded on the card as your team score for that hole, using the Player A or Player B column whichever is appropriate. At the end of the game you total your team score for your team result.

Prizes will be awarded as well as a generous ball rundown as usual.

Free day for all current members.

Prospective members are welcome and to pay game fee on the day.

Captains Report Yarrambat

A beautiful warm day greeted us for our monthly golf day at Yarrambat Park. The course and the greens were in very good shape, although the bunkers were not up to the standard we are used to, but we could all have a free drop if needed. However it was very disappointing to have only 64 members turn up for the day. Yarrambat has gone above and beyond to make this day special for the Hume Vets and to have only 64 players turn up and as captain I do believe this is not acceptable. The course was in very good condition and the meal was excellent, so for us to turn up with only 64 players it is like we are snubbing our noses at the hard working people at Yarrambat. If anyone has any reasons why our numbers were down you can speak to any of the committee members.

Now for the winners:

Name	Handicap	Score
A grade winner:
Darren Torpe	14	39 points
A grade runner-up:

16th Vic Macans

Ball rundown went down to 34 points with 21 balls being given out.

There was no birthday draw done on Monday so there will be two done next month.

Our next monthly game is at Melbourne Airport on the 2nd December and it will be a 4 ball better ball so pick your partner and as it is our last game for the year it is a free day put on your committee.

Best of golfing for the next month.

Every Aussie wants a Presidents Cup crack at Tiger Woods, but one stands out from the rest

Marc Leishman, Jason Day and Cameron Smith of Australia Source: AFP

Every member of the Internationals team wants to take on Tiger Woods at the Presidents Cup, with assistant captain Geoff Ogilvy suggesting Australians Marc Leishman, Cameron Smith and former number one Jason Day are frontrunners.

Woods will be playing captain when he leads a star-studded United States against the Internationals skippered by Ernie Els in the biennial team match-play showdown at Royal Melbourne from December 12-15.

Australian Ogilvy, who played in three Presidents Cups, said all of the 12-man had put their hand up to face the 15-time major winner, but favoured one of his fellow Australians to take on Woods.

"Jason Day can clearly hang with Tiger and go down the stretch with him," Ogilvy, who with Els was a member of the losing International team at Royal Melbourne in 2011, told the Melbourne Herald Sun.

"But Cam and Leish, they have really stood up the last couple of years and they are so bought into this. Cam is bouncing out of his skin. We have 12 great players, they all have a case.

"It depends on the situation of the match. It depends how the picks go too, we alternate, so Tiger could choose who he wants to play against. There's no real control there."

Woods will be the first playing captain since American Hale Irwin in the inaugural 1994 Presidents Cup after giving himself a wildcard following his record-equalling 82nd US PGA Tour title in Japan last month.

He spearheads a formidable team that features the three of the world's top four golfers in number one Brooks Koepka, third-ranked Dustin Johnson and number four Justin Thomas.

Els has a relatively inexperienced team looking to win the event for only the second time in its 25-year history. Their sole win came at the same Royal Melbourne venue in 1998.

"The American team look like a bit of a juggernaut but we've got a good young team," Ogilvy told reporters at the course on Monday.

"This is a tough place for them to play and Ernie is historically great around Royal Melbourne so he's got a lot of wisdom and the players want to win for him.

"The Americans are in a sweet spot of form but if you watch the Ryder Cup, they are very beatable if you play well. I see no reason why we can't pump them," he added.

The Presidents Cup will open with five fourball matches on the Thursday, followed by five foursomes on Friday. There will be four foursomes and four fourballs on Saturday with 12 singles to round out the competition on Sunday.

"You're late on the tee, John."

"Yes, well being a Sunday, I had to toss a coin to see if I should go to church or go and play golf."

"Okay, but why are you so late?"

"I had to toss it 15 times!"

Alzheimer's disease

Alzheimer's disease attacks brain cells and neurotransmitters (chemicals that carry messages between brain cells), affecting the way your brain functions, your memory and the way you behave. It is also the most common form of dementia.

Dementia is a collection of symptoms that are caused by disorders affecting the brain. It affects thinking, behaviour, and your ability to do normal tasks. About 7 in 10 people with dementia have Alzheimer's disease.

While the exact cause is unknown, the risk of developing Alzheimer's disease may be increased by a range of factors, including:

- age
- a family history of the condition
- previous severe head injuries
- lifestyle factors and conditions affecting heart and brain health

If you are worried that you may have Alzheimer's disease, visit your doctor to get some advice. Your doctor may ask you about any new or worsening problems you may have noticed such as:

- forgetfulness
- speech problems such as difficulty finding the right words
- difficulty in understanding what people are saying
- personality and mood changes
- difficulty with performing everyday routine activities

There is no single test that can be used to diagnose Alzheimer's disease. If your doctor suspects you may have Alzheimer's disease, they may refer you to a specialist to confirm the diagnosis.

Although Alzheimer's disease is not a normal part of ageing, it is more common in older people and may affect about 3 in every 10 people over the age of 85.

Go outside and Pee in the garden.

If ants gather: You've got Diabetes.

If you Pee on your feet: You've got Prostate problems.

If it smells like a barbeque: You've got Cholesterol issues.

If when you shake it, your hand hurts: You've got Osteoarthritis.

And if you return to your room with your penis outside your pants: Alzheimer's has got you.
