Captains Report Mt Derrimut

The weather was much better than two weeks ago at Mt Derrimut for our monthly game in June and on reflection the course was in excellent condition. The fairways were very good, and the greens were true. Some people did not putt too good, did they John Peart and Alan Kinnaird. Congratulations to Mt Derrimut staff for their assistants on the day, and especially to Geoff in the pro shop for his generous pricing of carts and coffees. Now we have Mt Derrimut on our permanent roster I believe the members should support this golf club and it is not the worst course we play for the year so everyone encourage your fellow members to make this day a must for next year. Thanks to the starters once again for getting the field away on time.

Mishap on the 12th.

Ian Morris was on the 12th green at Sunshine when his electric buggy took off and headed for the water. Nobody noticed it going and it took Ian and his partners ten minutes to find the buggy, which was half submerged in the water next to the 13th tee.

Ian's Seamaster watch was lost when the buggy tipped over, but he went back to look for it and was fortunate enough to find it in the murky water.

During his physical examination, a doctor asked a man about his physical activity level.

He described a typical day this way:

"Well, yesterday afternoon, I took a five hour walk about 7km through some pretty rough terrain. I waded along the edge of a lake. I pushed my way through bush. I got sand in my shoes and my eyes. I avoided standing on a snake. I climbed several rocky hills. I took a few 'leaks' behind some big trees - (ahhh, what a relief) The mental stress of it all left me shattered. At the end of it all I drank eight beers"

Inspired by the story, the doctor said, "You must be one hell of an outdoors man!" "No," he replied, "I'm just a shit golfer".

2019 US Open

Gary Woodland won the 2019 U.S. Open golf tournament by three strokes over a golfer who was trying pull off the three-peat.

Brooks Koepka was the two-time defending champion, having won the 2017 and 2018 U.S. Opens. Only one golfer in tournament history — Willie Anderson in 1903-05 — won three consecutive U.S. Opens.

No golfer since Peter Thomson in the British Open in the early 1950s has won any of the majors three times in a row.

No one will bring home more money this year than Gary Woodland, who not only captured his first major championship by dominating Pebble Beach but also hauled in a cool $2.25 million. Runner-up Brooks Koepka, the event's back-to-back defending champion, claimed $1.35 million.

HIPS GENERATE DISTANCE FOR THE BAG TOSS

by BogeyPro Golf

There's no better way to honor another triple digit round than the 'ol bag toss. The granddaddy of golf showmanship, it requires a bit of panache, a strong back, and knowledge of elementary physics. For cleaner clubs, execute from the edge of the nearest pond.
