

The September Game will be at:
Melton Valley Golf Club on Monday 2nd of September - 0800 Shotgun start.

This will be the first round of HVGC 2019 club championships. There are three competitions running simultaneously on the day. Club Championship, Scratch and Stableford. The match committee calculates a stableford score for the members on the basis of no handicap.

1 point for Bogey

2 points for Par

3 points for Birdie

4 points for eagle

A, B, C, D grade club champion normal stableford.

Members who have not qualified for the club championship are still eligible for the daily grade prizes and NTP's.

Included in Daily Comp fee Egg & Bacon Rolls will be available before the game.

There is a map of the course layout at the end of this newsletter

Melton Valley Golf Club

Melton Valley welcomes both members and visitors to their facility. Situated just 30 minutes from Melbourne CBD on the Western Highway, Melton Valley Golf Club is ideally situated. With narrow fairways, undulating greens and numerous water hazards, the course is an enjoyable test for the serious and casual golfer.

Designed by Tony Cashmore, the front nine is the place to set up your score, but after the turn, beware of Amen Corner, which has brought even the very best undone.

The course is fully watered with recycled water and is in excellent condition all year round.

Melton Valley Dress Code

- Neat and clean casual attire must be worn at all times on the golf course and in the Clubhouse.
- Sports socks, predominantly white or walking socks must be worn with shorts.
- Sandals or thongs may be worn in the Clubhouse.
- Gentlemen are required to wear shirts with a collar.
- Golf shoes or joggers can be worn on the golf course.
- Shoes worn on the course must not be worn in the Clubhouse.
- Hats and caps may not be worn in the Clubhouse.

Unacceptable dress includes:

- T-shirts
- Halter neck tops
- Singlets
- Sleeveless shirts
- Football or sports shorts
- Work boots
- Dress in the Clubhouse is at the discretion of the Committee of Management.

Captains Report Bacchus Marsh

A cool sunny morning greeted the players at Bacchus Marsh on 5th of August 19.

Although the fairways were a little bare, the greens and surrounds were in good shape.

With staff and mower problems, the rough on the course was long and not up to scratch, resulting in lower scores. Of the 84 players in the competition, 3 played to their handicap or better with the best score of the day 37 points.

We had 5 visiting Veterans play on the day from Castlemaine and Goulburn Valley golf clubs.

Special thanks to the starters and score card recorders for their contribution.

John Feehan Trophy

The annual John Feehan competition will be held on the 22nd of November at the Trentham Golf Course. Please make a note of this and plan to play in it. It is an open competition for 55 years and over. Recently Hume Vets numbers have been down, and we should all try to play in and support this tournament.

Winter start times

There will be a vote on the winter start times to be held at the 2nd round of the club championship. Currently the 3 winter games start at 9.00 am. The options will be 8.00 am, 8.30 am or 9.00 am.

Sponsorship and Golf Balls

The Golf Balls for the Ball run are now the Optima XSF golf balls. A much better ball than the current CS ball.

Walkinshaw Sports has donated a prize bag to be awarded to the player with the best net score for each month for next 11 months.

Mario has a supply of the brand new Optima XSF golf balls for the same price as previous- 2 dozen balls for $30 half retail price. Normal retail $28.99 doz.

Maximum distance with softer feel.
Large, high energy, soft feel 55 compression core.
High deformation core material for maximum energy transfer and release
Super thin Ionomer blend cover for greenside control.

It is a good opportunity to get a very good ball for a great price. You can order your supply from Mario, ring 0401604501 or email mariocaruso@bigpond.com
You can collect your order from Mario in Sunbury or at our next game.

My Health Record
My Health Record is an online summary of your key health information.
When you have a My Health Record, your health information can be viewed securely online, from anywhere, at any time – even if you move or travel interstate. You can access your health information from any computer or device that's connected to the internet.

Whether you're visiting a GP for a check-up, or in an emergency room following an accident and are unable to talk, healthcare providers involved in your care can access important health information, such as:

- Allergies
 - Medicines you are taking
 - Medical conditions you have been diagnosed with
 - Pathology test results, like blood tests.
- This can help you get the right treatment. You don't need to be sick to benefit from having a My Health Record. It's a convenient way to record and track your health information over time.

You control your record
You can choose to share your health information with the healthcare providers involved in your care.

If you wish, you can manage your My Health Record by adding your own information and choosing your privacy and security settings. For example, you can:
Add personal notes about your allergies and allergic reactions. An advance care plan or custodian details set access controls to restrict who can and can't see your health information, review your own health information and see the information your healthcare providers can see.
Set up SMS or email notifications so you know when a healthcare provider first accesses your record.

Next time you see your doctor, ask them to add your health information to your My Health Record.

By allowing your doctors to upload, view and share documents in your My Health Record, they will have a more detailed picture with which to make decisions, diagnose and provide treatment to you. You can also ask that some information not be uploaded to your record.

A golfer sliced a ball into a field of chickens, striking one of the hens and killing it instantly. He was understandably upset and sought out the farmer. "I'm sorry," he said, "my terrible tee-shot hit one of your hens and killed it. Can I replace the hen?"

"I don't know about that," replied the farmer, mulling it over. "How many eggs a day do you lay?"

One of the world's most popular actors, Samuel L. Jackson, is also an avid golfer. In fact, the star of flicks like "Pulp Fiction" and "Django Unchained," has a contract clause to play golf twice a week whenever he films movies.

+++++ He may be the most famous left-handed golfer of all-time, but four-time major champion Phil Mickelson is naturally right-handed. As a youngster, he mirrored his father's swing and enjoyed so much success that he never needed right-handed clubs.

#INTLTEAM

International Team Standings as of 29 July 2019

It was great to see our current points leaders Marc Leishman enjoying a solid third-place finish at the recent World Golf Championships-FedEx St Jude Invitational in Memphis. Since our team qualifying process began last August, Leish has truly been a model of consistency. He won the CIMB Classic in Malaysia in October and rode on the momentum to add three top-5 finishes at the start of the year. His strong showing in Memphis is just another reminder of what he can do for our team at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in December. My good friend, Louis Oosthuizen, is on course to make his fourth Presidents Cup team appearance where he currently sits in second place on our points list. With a T7 at the recent U.S. Open, I'll be counting on him to hit top form at the end of the year. Adam Scott and Hideki Matsuyama have looked really solid all year, with Adam enjoying two top-10s in the U.S. Open and PGA Championship and Hideki producing some really good stuff with five top 10s and have missed only one cut all year.

As the player with the most appearances for our team – Adam has been in eight previous teams – it is a given that he will be one of the leaders of our pack when our guys are out on the golf course battling for the International Team’s pride and honour.
