Captain's Report Bacchus Marsh 12th September 2022

The sun may have been up, but it was a cool start for the first round of our Championships at Bacchus Marsh Golf Club on the 12th of Sep 22.

Unlike the August game the wind blew at a gentle zephyr through the morning with long patches of sunlight providing a bit of warmth.

The course was in fair shape with the odd wet area on a few fairways. Thanks to the greens staff for getting the greens mown early and to the restaurant staff for providing a hearty meal.

Thanks to committee members for their efforts in starting the field and compiling results, especially Bill Mandouit coordinating his first event.

The field was down on numbers with late withdrawals, some sickies and a few on holidays. Although conditions were so much better than our last outing, only one of the local members out of 54 players participating was able to play better than handicap.

HUME VETS TRIUMPHANT AT V.V.G.A. ANNUAL TEAMS TOURNAMENT 2022
held at Stawell Golf Club

Left to Right: Bernie Handke, Ron Swift, Laurie Craig, Daryl Bessel, Tony Barr, Brian Smith

We have just received news that our number 2 team was successful in winning the Championship Trophy for the best combined stableford score over the 2 days played on Monday and Tuesday this week which was held at the Stawell Golf Club.

Congratulations to Tony Barr, Laurie Craig and Brian Smith who were able to come back from 5 points down at the halfway mark and win by 3 points from Wimmera Vets with Ballarat Vets coming in third.

According to Tony the course was playing long due to recent heavy rain and the greens were not easy to read with the scores reflecting the tough conditions.

Left to Right: Laurie Craig, VVGA President Richard Olsen, Tony Barr, Brian Smith

Following are the individual scores :-
 Monday 5th, Tony Barr 31, Laurie Craig 29, Brian Smith 29, Total 89 points.
 Tuesday 6th, Tony Barr 34, Laurie Craig 35, Brian Smith 34, total 103 points.
Overall total 192 points

Laurie Craig, President Alan Kinnaird, Tony Barr

Hume Vets have been competing in this prestigious event for many years and it is a fantastic result to finally have our name on the trophy. Well done boys.

Our number 1 team comprising of Bernie Handke, Daryl Bessell and Ron Swift were not far off the pace and Bernie played very well on Tuesday to win the best individual score with 37 points. He was only 2 shots off winning the best score for the two days.

Congratulations Bernie and a big thank you to him for coordinating the arrangements for our 2 teams.

Welfare Report

Colin Yates is recovering after receiving a pacemaker.
 Bob Duggan has had major surgery but will be back soon.
 Carol Young has responded to well treatment, and we hope to see her in the not too distant future.

Peter Caple is the Welfare Officer.
 Please contact Peter at p.caple@bigpond.com if you know of any of our members who are ill.

NEW PROVIDER OF GOLF GEAR ESTABLISHED

The committee would like to advise that the club has parted ways with our old providers of our golf gear, Walkinshaw Golf and Par Maker Golf. Our club has established a relationship with a new provider- Altona Lakes Golf Club (ALGC). In the past, ALGC has provided trophies for the John Feehan Tournament.

Shane Turner has arranged with Chris Condon - the club manager at ALGC - to support our club tournament prizes in the future. Starting with providing competitively priced golf balls for our ball run downs and the prizes for this year's John Feehan Tournament at Trentham in October.

This arrangement also includes the on-going service of providing the members with an opportunity to purchase a very good golf ball at a competitive price of just $25 per dozen. Orders for the purchase of balls are to be made through Shane Turner.

2022 Presidents Cup

After a three-year hiatus, the Presidents Cup is back in action.

Normally held biennially on odd-numbered years, the Presidents Cup schedule was delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic after the Americans won the 2019 matches in thrilling fashion, 16-14, at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Australia. The return of the matches between the United States and the Internationals has been largely impacted by LIV Golf after numerous players with a case for qualification joined the upstart circuit led by Greg Norman and backed by the Public Investment Fund of Saudi Arabia.

With the four-day event set to begin at Quail Hollow Club in Charlotte, North Carolina, here's everything you need to know for the 2022 Presidents Cup.

When and where

Dates: Sept. 22-25
Host course: Quail Hollow Club, Charlotte, North Carolina
Architect : George Cobb (1961)
Par/Yardage: 71 | 7,576 yards

Quail Hollow Club has been a regular stop on the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions dating back to 1969 and has hosted what is now the Wells Fargo Championship since 2003, although the 2022 event was moved to TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm in Potomac, Maryland, in preparation of the Presidents Cup.

Quail Hollow also hosted the 2017 PGA Championship, won by Justin Thomas, and will host the 2025 PGA Championship, as well. Built by George Cobb and opened in 1961, the course has seen several renovations over the decades, including by Arnold Palmer and, most recently, Tom Fazio. It ranks as the No. 4 private course in North Carolina on Golfweek's Best Private Courses.

Format

Fans will be treated to 30 matches spread out over four days as a team of 12 American players will take on a team of 12 International players (minus Europe, who competes against the U.S. in the Ryder Cup). Thursday will feature five four-ball matches, with five foursome matches to follow on Friday. Saturday will feature four morning fourball matches with four foursome matches in the afternoon. All 12 players will then compete in a singles match Sunday.

Each match is worth one point, with ties being worth half a point. Players are required to play at least one match, not including Sunday singles. Inspired by the 2003 Presidents Cup, the first and only tie in the competition's history, if the event is tied after Sunday singles, the teams will share the Presidents Cup.

LIV Golf has made an impact on this year's matches. Looking at the rosters from 2019, three American players (four if you count Brooks Koepka, who withdrew with a knee injury) and five International players have moved to the new circuit, opening up spaces for some fresh faces.

History

This year marks the 14th playing of the Presidents Cup. Last time out the Americans were victorious in Australia at Royal Melbourne, defeating the Internationals, 16-14.

The United States have dominated during the history of the matches, going 11-1-1, with its lone loss coming in 1998 at Royal Melbourne, the third playing of the event. The lone tie in the history of the competition occurred two matches later in 2003.

The players

For the U.S., the automatic qualifiers are:-

Scottie Scheffler, Patrick Cantlay, Xander Schauffele, Sam Burns, Justin Thomas and Tony Finau.

The captain's picks are:-

Jordan Spieth, Collin Morikawa, Max Homa, Billy Horschel, Cameron Young and Kevin Kisner.

For the Internationals, the automatic qualifiers are:-

Hideki Matsuyama (Japan), Sungjae Im (South Korea), Tom Kim (South Korea), Corey Connors (Canada), Adam Scott (Australia) and Mito Pereira (Chile).

The captain's picks are:-

K.H. Lee (South Korea), Sebastian Munoz (Colombia), Christiaan Bezuidenhout (South Africa), Taylor Pendrith (Canada), Cam Davis (Australia) and Si Woo Kim (South Korea).
